About This Game

Volted is a very intense team-based multiplayer vehicular shooter with classes and giant robotic bugs.

In the world where electricity became main resource, all you left to do is fight for it.

Blow up enemies, destroy and protect pylons, fight robotic bugs and bulldogs. Collect guns on the battlefield and unlock models and new weapons. Cannons, machine guns, shotguns, energy weapons - all that beauty is there for you to bring destruction or prevent it.

Interact with each other by recharging shields, feeding energy and restoring each others' ammo capacity.

There are four vehicle classes: Hover, Tank, Copter and Artillery. All 4 classes are deeply integrated into a team and squad cooperation system that is essential for gaining the victory. You can find different types of ammunition, endurance and speed abilities when exploring the battleground with each class. Besides the above listed capabilities, each class has a unique resource ability that your team requires the most to complete key objectives. In order to obtain this unique resource, you need to stay near the appropriate vehicle class.

Volted lands are waiting for you.

Don't get me wrong, I think it's a good game. But to be honest, I thought there was multiplayer matchmaking in this game. I bought the game because i got a couponcode, and had hopes that it would be a fun little game. But it just got boring really quick... I have to refund, because i don't think it was worth my money. There was no multiplayer and you can only invite your friends and play with them.. This is a labor of love. The gameplay is surprisingly tactical, since every tank class also has an important passive capability (healing, shield, ammo, respawn) - if nobody plays as artillery you're going to lose. If nobody plays tank you're going to lose. etc... Multiplayer works great even though it's a bit opaque, as there's no server list. Just hit play and invite friends. On the plus side, there's always someone to play against, as the game features automatic balancing with bots. This is key to keeping a game interesting even when there's few people on, and I'm glad the developer has put this in.

You can do much worse for 5 bucks. I'm giving this a thumbs up. If the developer keeps adding interesting gameplay elements then he could easily up the price lateron too.
